

Big Dutchman, Inc. seeks a Product Configuration Engineer for its office in Holland, Michigan. Define product standards for livestock production equipment; Coordinate structures for the product and bills of material; Create product models in collaboration with Engineering and Sales, and program and implement the modeling in the product configurator. Requires associate's degree in mechanical engineering or mechanical engineering technology, plus 1 yr of experience as a Mechanical Engineer or Product Configuration Engineer. Experience must include 1 yr of: 1) coordinating and implementing product configuration processes for agricultural or livestock production equipment; and 2) computer programming in object-oriented or structured languages. Requires 10% international/domestic travel. Please send resume to bvelderman@bigdutchmanusa.com with Product Configuration Engineer in subject line.